

CV Johann (Hans) Langgassner

Mag. Johann (Hans) Langgassner, born on 16. Jan. 1959 in Austria, is the founder, CEO and Chief Investment Officer of LL CAPITAL & PARTNERS LTD. The company, under a category 2 license issued by the Malta Financial Services Authority (MFSA) in October 2009, offers a range of financial and administrative services to private clients and families, as well as for professional partners.

Before founding his own company Hans Langgassner broadened and deepened his experience in the financial services industry through taking responsibility in client advisory and also managerial functions in a small Private Bank in Austria (Capital Bank – Grawe Group AG, head of Private Banking International, April 2004 – December 2008) and especially within one of the largest global Private Banking Institutions (Merrill Lynch Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc, Merrill Lynch International Bank Ltd., First Vice President Investments, April 1990 – March 2004). Through constantly achieving above average results in all functions assigned Hans Langgassner regularly qualified for the highest Merrill Lynch – internal recognition clubs and was finally awarded membership in the Charles E. Merrill Circle.

During this tenure his responsibilities included building and servicing a book of High Net Worth clients, developing and executing financial planning mandates and international cross border structures, developing tailor made financial solutions, building and leading teams and departments, setting up and leading a representative office in Prague, acting as delegate of the German speaking countries to the European Advisory Council to Management at Merrill Lynch in London and New York.

The groundwork for his professional carrier development was laid – on top of a proper education at home – by academic studies honoured with a diploma from the University of Economics and Business Administration in Vienna.
